Dear Katherine,

News from BVRI Board President, Tom Fraser: This week, the BVRI Board unveiled a new BVRI Website. One of our most important communication vehicles, we use the site to help ensure you remain informed and engaged with the community. We are pleased to provide the revamped and revitalized BVRI Website for your use, feedback, and as a central point of community information-sharing. BVRI undertook this Website-revitalization project (thank you Board members Ann Porteus and Jill Wegenstein!) to provide a more user-friendly source of information for our members. We have included the important topics in a more accessible format, and in a layout that invites exploration. Check it out at BVRI.org

Next Saturday, July 6th, the BVRI Board will be hosting the Bear Valley Community Picnic. We are working hard to host another great picnic and we really hope we get to see you there!

BVRI June Meeting Update

Meeting Minutes are Posted

The Board had a very full agenda at our June 8th meeting. Further details on pool usage will be announced in the next week.
