Dear Katherine,

There are reports of smoke in some areas of Alpine county drifting from wildfires in the area making visibility and air conditions poor at times. We are sharing below the latest update on this situation from the Alpine County website.

WILDFIRE SMOKE ADVISORY

Posted on Alpine County Website: August 23, 2013

The Rim Fire and other wildfires in the region are creating smoky conditions in some areas of Alpine County, prompting the Alpine County Health Department to issue an advisory. Officials expect that Alpine County may continue to be affected on an intermittent basis. Smoke conditions can vary a great deal in Alpine County because of the terrain, wind direction and weather.

For more information about the smoke as it affects Alpine County, please check the Alpine County Website.
