Katherine,

The 47th annual Bear Valley Music Festival starts in two short weeks. This year the festival will run from July 24 to August 9. Maestro Michael Morgan has brought together a delightful, well-rounded program for the entire community to enjoy this season. From the soulful, yet timeless music of the T Sisters on opening night, to the classic sounds of Beethoven and Schubert at the last concert, there is music for all! Please check out the Bear Valley Music Festival website for a full schedule.

The Festival's immediate need is to arrange housing for all the musicians who bring their talent to Bear Valley. Artists come from all over the country and we always like to extend them a warm welcome! If you have a bedroom, condo or house to share, please contact the festival office ASAP. The families who have housed musicians in the past find it a very rewarding and enriching experience. Housing musicians in local residences saves the festival thousands of dollars that can then be directed to bringing more interesting and creative programs to future festivals, and helps to keep ticket prices down.

Say yes and provide a big boost to our welcome.

If you have a bedroom, condo or house to share, please contact the festival office ASAP at (209) 813-0554.

community by calling the festival at (209) 813-0554.

Congratulations on an awesome picnic!

We had a record crowd at the picnic last weekend. If you attended you know we had great food and drink, fun new games for adults and kids alike, along with fantastic prizes.

Thank you to Kim LeMieux and Tom Fraser for their leadership in making the picnic so much fun and thank YOU for coming!
