

Welcome to Bear Valley

Getting Connected to the Bear Valley Community

This flyer has been compiled by the BVRI Board to introduce you to important ways to learn about what is happening the Bear Valley Community. These are not all BVRI sponsored forums.

- The Bear Valley Residents Incorporated (BVRI) website: www.bvri.org The website includes dates of meetings and events, neighborhood issues and updates, and other useful information about the community. While you are there click on the membership tab and see how to join. Among other things, BVRI membership gives you access to Bear Lake for swimming and fishing, use of the lodge pool and a voice in community affairs.
- BVRI E-blasts. Regular BVRI Newsletter sent by email and posted on the BVRI website to BVRI members.
- Bear Valley Nextdoor (an online community now with almost 400 members). The signup is via an email account and your Bear Valley street address. If you are already a member of another Nextdoor neighborhood you will need a different email address. <https://bearvalley.nextdoor.com/>
- Bear Valley Mountain Coop: www.bvmcoop.org. Be sure to visit their website and consider joining this newly formed organization to support the development of the mountain and village.
- Bear Valley Mountain Resort: www.bearvalley.com. Visit this website and get yourself on their email list to receive regular updates about what is happening on the mountain and in the village.
